The 25th GRIFFIN

We Dedicate- - - -

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-six, dedicate this twenty-fifth Griffin to those seven teachers who have served Buchtel students since the establishment of the school. With their skillful guidance and friendly help, they have been an inspiration to thousands of Buchtel students.

Much of the brick and mortar of our building is new, but it is our fine tradition and outstanding spirit which have truly made the school what it is. These seven have played a great part in initiating tradition and developing the spirit of BHS.

It is in large measure through their contributions that Buchtel is today recognized as a leader in scholarship, athletics, and the development of fine citizens.

Mr. Schneyer

As principal of Buchtel, Mr. Schneyer has initiated and sponsored many worthwhile activities for the enjoyment of the student body.

He has an excellent background in the field of dramatics and generously offered his experience this year to the production of "Ghost Train," a three act play.

In past years, Mr. Schneyer has sponsored the "Promenader's," a group interested in learning folk dances. American round dancing is one of Mr. Schneyer's chief pleasures.

Because of his ability, understanding, and spirit, Buchtel is a better place in which to go to school.

Mr. Tucker

Mr. Tucker, assistant principal, is well informed on every problem and project which is a part of Buchtel High School.

Mr. Tucker received his B. A. at Ohio State, and his Masters at Akron University. Previous to his coming to Buchtel, Mr. Tucker served as a teacher and a counselor at West High School.

With his many fine qualities, Mr. Tucker is a highly capable and much respected advisor.

Class History-1956

The first week in September, 1952, about 400 of us walked through the halls of Buchtel for the first of a thousand times. We were very anxious to see this big school where there were elevators, strange things to eat for lunch, and long homework assignments. We were scared and somewhat bewildered at first, but we soon became accustomed to our new environment. Exams posed a major problem for us green freshies, but after the first big hurdle, we came to accept them as a necessary evil.

To represent the class on Student Council, we selected Ned Weingart and Lynne Humiston. A few weeks later, we elected our first court representatives. Sandy Treece and Rosalie Clark were named to the Homecoming Court. Ned Weingart and Dick Fischer represented the freshman boys on the King "B" Court in February and in the spring, Nancy Boss and Rose Mary Christy were elected to the May Court.

As sophomores, we had a big surprise: we were still the youngest class in the school. It was like being freshmen all over again, except that the upper classmen were not so big or so much older. This year many of the boys participated in athletics and contributed much to the performance of the teams. Our Student Council representatives were: Ned Weingart, Bud Cunningham, Bev Friedman, and Norma Kirschner. One of the highlights of our sophomore year was the beginning of the construction of our new building. Our recitations were often shouted over the noise of hammer and drill but the long-awaited expansion was at last under way.

On the Homecoming Court were Sandy Treece and Rosalie Clark. Dick Fischer and Ned Weingart served on the King "B" Court and the May Court included Marlene Miller and Rose Mary Christy.

September, 1954: we were upper classmen at last! Our Junior Class officers were: President, Ned Weingart; Vice-President, Joe Cole; Secretary, Marlene Miller; and Treasurer, Carol Messerly. On our grade cards, number grades were replaced by letters and we now learned to strive for our coveted A's. We had successful picnics in the fall and spring in spite of the weather and we were the first class in Buchtel's history to have a roller skating party—emphasizing our great class spirit.

We elected Bud Cunningham, Ned Weingart, John Poulos, Sue Fraser, Sue Epstein and Denise Jackson to the Student Council. Homecoming Queen Rosalie Clark was crowned by Marlene Miller. Rosalie's attendants were: Nancy Boss, Sandy Treece, Rose Mary Christy, and Lynne Humiston. Ned Weingart and Dick Fischer again represented the boys on the King "B" Court, and Carol Messerly and Pat Miller were the attendants on the May Court.

September, 1955: The fourth and last year! (for most of us.) We had reached the top of the ladder. We were led by our Class President, Ron Miller: Vice-President, Ned Weingart: Secretary, Lynne Humiston: Treasurer, Pat Miller. Bud Cunningham served as Student Council President and John Hillegas was President of the Homeroom Representatives. Other Seniors on the Student Council were: Ned Weingart, John Poulos, Ron Miller, Sue Fraser, Carol Messerly, Marlene Miller, and Pat Miller. The new wing was finally completed and we truly appreciated the beauty and modern facilities it gave to the school. The Seniors lead the football team to the City Championship, Buchtel's first; and the basketball team, consisting entirely of Seniors had a fine season, breaking all scoring records.

Cynthia Roysdon, Paula Valentine, Sue Stuttle, and Carroll O'Hara were the Senior girls on the Homecoming Court. In February, Ron Miller was King "B" and Joe Cole, crowner. The Knights were: Bill Evans, Dick Fischer, John Poulos, Ned Weingart, Bud Cunningham, and Walt Kirn. Sandy Treece crowned Marlene Miller May Queen while the other Senior attendants were: Rosalie Clark, Pat Miller, Carol Messerly, Lynne Humiston, and Rose Mary Christy. Fifty-nine Seniors were selected for NHS in the spring. The officers were: Joe Cole, President; Walter Kirn, Vice-President; Nancy Palmer, Secretary; and Norma Kirschner, Treasurer.

Before the end of our Senior year, we had participated as a class in two more picnics, another roller skating party, a wonderful Class Night, and a prom we shall always remember. We took great pride in being the twenty-fifth and last four-year class to graduate from Buchtel.

Friends About Us

ECRETARIES

Few things would be ac-mplished in the way of of-cial documents if it were-t for our two able secre-ries, Mrs. Frances Poulos, d Miss Grace Weber. Mrs. oulos came to Buchtel just is year, but she has already oved to be a great asset to e administration, and the udent body.

CUSTODIANS

Under the direction of Mr. George Pryor, Buchtel's custodians keep our building clean and comfortable. Their excellent job has won national recognition.

COOKS

Our staff of cooks, who make our lunch periods so enjoyable is headed by Mrs. Gladys Kuhn. They've done a great job this year feeding the great mass of students and keeping the cafeteria running smoothly.

Most Of All

The Senior Class of 1956 is especially indebted to Mr. Piotter, Senior Counselor, for his patience, dependability, and keen advice.

For three years, Mr. Piotter has assisted us in choosing our subjects and future vocations. Our smallest problems were treated with serious attention which resulted in a promising solution.

In the years to come, we will always remember Mr. Piotter for his wonderful sense of humor, steadfast support, and warm understanding.

Prophecy

One Saturday afternoon in 1976 Ann McGinnis. secret service agent for the F. B. I.. Connie Stone. teacher in one of Akron's grade schools. and I drove out to the home of Sandy and Dalby Crawfis. The Crawfises had invited a few of their friends from Buchtel's class of '56 to come and see their new home.

When we arrived. we found Sandy and Dalby watching the Cleveland Browns. Chicago Bears football game. The Bears were winning. but only because of the skill of their tremendous fullback. Tom Kreakbaum. Coach Harold Munford certainly has done a lot for that boy! Ken Sabo. sportscaster. announced that Stan Kodish. millionaire playboy. is the new owner of the Bears. It will be interesting to see what Stan's new manager. Tom Gardner. will do for the team.

During half-time a few friends dropped in to join the viewers; among them Diane Greenberger and Madelyn Goldberg who are partners in New York's most famous speech and hearing clinic. Associated with the clinic are Carole Trautwein. eminent psychologist. and Lois Netler. distinguished social worker. We all settled down to watch the half-time show which featured Harvey Roth and his well-known moondoggers—once known as the Kitchen Crew Cuts.

The next program offered operatic gems by Paula Korman and excerpts from the "Ballet of the Red Shoes" by Mimi Still. who has been with the Ballet Russe. Drummer. Leonard Jetton. and cellist. Elyssa Lindner. were in the orchestra.

We then watched part of Mr. Wizard. starring the brilliant chemist. Dennis Morton. He was explaining some of the dangers of sulfuric acid to boy scientist. Willard Russell. Jr. At first we couldn't place the Russell boy's face. but someone remembered seeing his father and his Uncle Dave advertising Toni products on T. V.

At six the news came on. "A motorist was killed in a crash early this morning when his car collided with a truck at the corner of Grant and Thornton Streets across from Gerald Snyder's pool hall. Phyllis Williams. well-known lawyer. has already filed charges of manslaughter against the driver of the truck which belonged to the Harvey Winer trucking firm. O'Brien Funeral Home is taking care of arrangements for the deceased. Also in the news tonight is the announcement that Acme Stores have been absorbed by the Vincenski Chain.

"In Paris last night Miss Carroll O'Hara. foreign correspondent for the New York Times. gave a party for some of her noted American friends. Attending were: Dr. and Mrs. John Simpson from Akron. Ohio. who have been touring Europe for the past few months: Miss Denise Jackson. figure skater. who is planning to return to the United States to go on tour with the Ice Follies: Robert Hall. chemical engineer. who has recently been awarded the Nobel prize in chemistry: and Miss Alice Moyer. a teacher from Buchtel High School. who has been on a speaking tour in France. Airline stewardesses. Florence Nakeff and Jackie Powers. were there for awhile before their plane left for New York.

"And now for the latest sports news. . .Cindy, a champion beagle owned by Carol Messerly and trained for hunting by Walter Kirn and John Hilligas, has won the National Field Trials. Michael Lynch, the motorcycle kid, is the new world motorcycle champion. Phil Richards announced today that his famous horse, Griff, will be ready for racing this winter, despite its recent illness. Mr. Richards told the press that the horse is able to race again due to the skill of Dr. James Taylor of Taylor Veterinary Hospital. Marilyn Fouse will be riding Griff in the coming races. One sad point in the news tonight is the report of the near drowning of Robert Kinney in his bathtub. However Dr. Wynne Levy, chief of staff at General, assures us that Mr. Kinney, one-time champion swimmer, is resting comfortably and has suffered no ill effects. Ron Harris, star center fielder for the Indians, has been voted player of the year on his retirement from baseball. Bill Gore, winner of the National Open, has also announced his retirement from sports. He declined to say anything about his future but rumor has it that he is taking over the Perry Como Show. Tune in tomorrow. . ."

With this we turned off the television, a new Knouse color set especially designed for the Crawfis home. As we entered the dining room, we noticed the beauty of the interior decorating done by Treece, Cash, Wilson, and Kemp Inc. Mounted over the mantle was the head of a huge lion which had been shot and stuffed by John Taffin, world renowned hunter and taxidermist. Mrs. Crawfis showed us an oil painting done by Larry Schweikert who is holding an exhibit at the Art Institute in a few weeks. Nancy Palmer also has some of her art work on exhibit. Mr. Crawfis pointed with pride to the grounds which had been landscaped by Jim Walter's landscaping service.

The dinner, which was delicious, was prepared by the Paula Kuhn Caterers. Just as we sat down, Frank Brubaker rushed in. Frank is good-will ambassador for Carpenter's Studio. Another late arrival was Paula Valentine who was looking great after a permanent at Joyce Winter's Beauty Salon. Paula has been working with O'Neils as Santa Claus during the Christmas season. After the butler, Steve Glass, had served the dessert, we returned to the living room for our coffee.

From the den, we head the sound of the television. The children were watching "Wyatt Earp," starring Bill Rogers. "Comedy Hour" started after a short commercial for Irene Finn's dancing school. Judy Katz, famous comedienne, has taken over the show and tonight her guest star was Gary Gerber, marriage counselor and human relations authority. The program was really funny! Of course, with Katrina Longenecker writing the script, what could one expect? The music was provided by a group called the Downbeats, featuring Ron Miller, Dave Wolf, Sid Lesowitz, Marvin Boggs, Jack Lane, and Denny Price. The Encores, a famous recording group, sang some of their newest hits. Following this we turned to "I've Got a Secret" emceed by Roger Ream who, looking cute in his bermudas, kept us laughing at his new and different jokes. The panel consisted of Barbara Selby, famous author; Jasper Hardin, admiral in the U. S. Coast Guard; Cheryl Wellock, mathematician who has recently disproved Einstein's theory of relativity; and finally Steve Stanec, an electrical engineer from Earth, Moon, and Mars Inc.

The first contestant was Bob Gulian. The panel had some trouble guessing Bob's secret as he is Dean of Women at Sutherland College for girls. Second on the program was Steve Bratanov, all-star center for the U. S. Olympic basketball team. The panel failed to guess that he had not played varsity basketball in high school.

Following the commercial lauding the new line of Hornbeiner sports cars which are so popular these days, Roger introduced mystery guest, Gary Friedman, to the panel and audience. The panel discovered that Gary had just returned from leading the first all-female expedition to the moon. He said the trip was fine except for some trouble over running out of gas up there (Yes-um-hum). We all remembered the disturbance that Dan Webb, noted astronomer, reported a few months ago and realized now that it was only good old Gary. Last, but not least, on the program was successful business man Jack Gosling whose secret the panel guessed immediately—he still has his first penny!

At the close of the show, we decided to go to Garner's, now owned and operated by Marty Levin. Marty has streamlined his service by putting the car-hops on roller skates and he has recently hired Joan Shaw and Barb Thornton who sing as they whizz the food to the cars. Smiling Jack Carter, who is in charge of all car-hops, took our order. In one of the other cars we saw Katherine Nemeth and Jackie Behney who have bought the Dock Shop at Lakeside, Ohio and are planning to open for business next summer. They said that Nancy Helfrick, star tennis player, is going to enter the Lakeside Tournaments in July.

Maureen Sherman, who is a surgical nurse at City, came over to the car. She had just come from seeing a picture at Loew's starring Shirley Munn, and said that Lillian Lukich was featured at the organ.

We also saw Jim Feldman, photographer for the Associated Press, and Betty Nahas, who has recently been modeling in O'Neil's Georgian Room.

As we drove home, we were still talking of our classmates and of the success they have had. It seemed that the Class of '56 had come through with flying colors as usual.

The Griffin staff has an all year job. From the first day of school in September until graduation, decisions concerning the book are made. The amount of thought and time put into the Griffin are countless.

The advertising staff, headed by Marty Thomas, Carol McManus, Dave Wolf, and Jim MacGregot carefully watched the mercury rise in the thermometer hanging in the Cafeteria. Nancy Boss, entrusted with the Griffin funds, was able to breathe again the day the ad-thermometer hit the top.

Howdy Wright and Norma Prehoda spent their time with drawing paper, ink, and pen. Their art contributions now enhance the book.

Under the able leadership of our advisor, Mr. Friedman, and editor Marv Pliskin, the pages of the yearbook developed. Working on the copy were Sue Mull, Vince Yinger, Catherine Cox, Bill Gore, Wynne Levy, and Rita Weiss. Photography was ably supervised by Frank Brubaker.

As the copy was ready for final typing, Ann McGinnis and Connie Stone took over. The completed layout sheets were then sent away and new assignments were begun.

As each member of the staff completes his seemingly insignificant assignment, another important part of the puzzle falls into place. Eventually, the long hours of work put in by the staff result in this yearbook, which we hope will be a lasting record of the accomplishments of the Senior Class of 1956.

Every three weeks a staff of seventeen people headed by Norma Kirschner, Editor-in-Chief and advised by Mr. Charles Schifano, publish Buchtel's newspaper, the Talon.

With never an idle moment between issues, Bob Kinney, Layout Editor; Ellen Ratkovich, Headline Editor; Jim Buchholz, Managing Editor; Norma, and Mr. Schifano look over the last edition and make suggestions for improvement on the next.

Al Friedman and Marty Thomas, in charge of the sports page, offer suggestions to Ron Harris, staff artist.

Feature editors Barbara Selby and Shirley Manes are always looking for sidelights to the news. Norma and Barbara offer suggestions as Shirley starts writing out assignments.

Sue Epstein creates and assigns all the special features. Typing one of Sue's stories is Marilyn Mercur who is office manager.

Bunny Longenecker and Gail Solomon, news editors, are receiving advice on grammar from Eleanor Knykendall who is the copy editor.

When the copy for all the pages has been put together, it is proofread and taken to the printers. After a month of preparation, the paper is finally passed out to the students and faculty by circulation manager, Steve Hantman.

Hi-Y

The Buchtel Hi-Y Club is one of the hundreds of chapters of a national organization jointly sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. and the public high schools. The purpose of the Hi-Y is "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character." This oath is taken by every Hi-Y member at an induction ceremony in the fall.

Buchtel's Hi-Y has been very active this year in school activities. The sale of school book covers and service at school functions are an important part of its program.

This year's officers were Dean Milo, president: Jack Bayonnet, vice-president: John Henry, secretary: Sam Katnich, treasurer: Ned Houst, chaplain: John Baker, assistant chaplain: Roger Ream, sergeant-at-arms: and Jack Sellars, assistant sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Schoner and Mr. Schaller did a wonderful job sponsoring the club.

Comwolei

This year, the Junior and Senior Comwolei joined to form one club.

The name Comwolei was derived from the words Companionship, Work, and Leisure. It is closely connected with the Red Cross, has charge of all Red Cross activities, and has a Junior Red Cross representative in the club.

Each year, Comwolei sponsors Friendship Day and the sale of Howdy books. Other activities included the purchase of geraniums for Memorial Day, and the sponsorship of the very successful Harvest Moon Ball.

The club was advised by Miss Sarah Mooney and Mrs. Marie Starks. Joan Shaw was president: Katherine Nemeth, vice-president: Cheryl Wellock, secretary: Rita Howell, treasurer: and Nancy Epstein, recording secretary.

Senior Y-Teens

The Senior Y-Teens have ended a very successful year under the leadership of Carroll O'Hara, president; Penny Orlick, vice-president; Carol Williams, treasurer; Sue Epstein, secretary; Sue Fraser, chaplain; and Mrs. Cosmogolos, advisor.

Some of the many activities in which the Y-Teens participated were the King B Dance, basketball and swimming city competition, and competing for the B'nai B'rith service award. Another club project was the first aid clinic.

Junior Y-Teens

The Y-Teens organization is a part of the Teenage Department of the Y.W.C.A. We, as an organization, try to plan our program around three objectives: growing as a person, in the knowledge and love of God, and in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities.

Among the club's activities this year were the making of a scrapbook on the American teenager which won second prize in a county-wide contest, making valentines for the Children's Hospital, and a swimming party.

The officers were Nanci Hunsicker, president; Pat Shaw, vice-president; Barb Jones, secretary; Judy Reighard, treasurer; and Eleanor Meincke, chaplain.

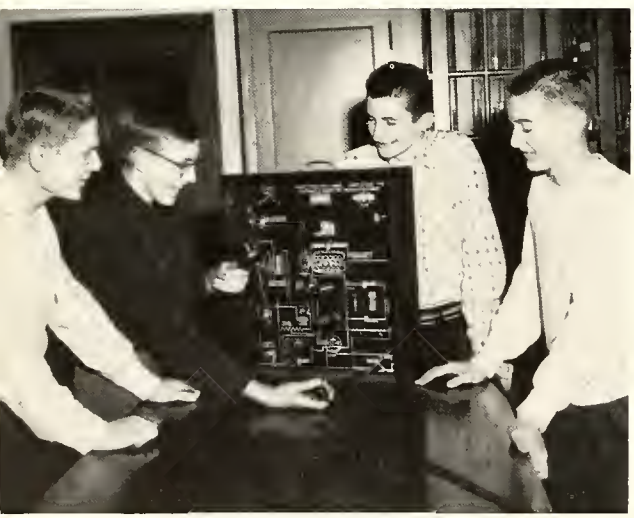

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The Chemistry Club boasted the largest membership in history this year. The group enjoyed many interesting programs, including talks by Doctor Thomas Sumner and Doctor Maurice Morton of Akron University, and Mr. F. C. Trager of Columbia-Southern Chemicals.

The club held several exciting trips, visiting the B. F. Goodrich Research Laboratory at Brecksville, a spring excursion to a Youngstown Steel Mill, and the annual Christmas Party at Firestone Park.

The club was under the leadership of President Marilyn Mercur, Vice-President Bob Jenkins, Secretary Bunny Longnecker, and Treasurer Al Friedman. Advisor of the club was Mr. Reeves.

PHYSICS CLUB

The Physics Club has completed a very active and successful year in which many worth-while and interesting projects were carried out. The group constructed a Van de Graff generator which has been donated to the Buchtel physics department. The club also participated in a demonstration with a radio transmitter and enjoyed talks by several speakers.

Officers of the club were Roy Gordon, President; David Lowe, Vice-President; Bill Reinherr, Secretary; and Dick Tozer, Treasurer. Advisor was Mr. Baker.

Latin Club

Buchtel's Latin Club, an affiliate of the National Junior Classical League, has spent a very active year acquainting Latin students with our ancient Greek and Roman heritage. This program has been carried out through philanthropic projects, speakers, a Latin week display, movies, and orginal plays. The year was concluded by a Roman Banquet in which the participants dressed in Roman garb.

Through the slides of Buchtel Latin students who actually traveled abroad, members of the club have gained a deeper understanding and greater knowledge of Greece and Italy as they are today.

The officers of the club were Judy Katz, president; Harold Gray, vice-president; and Jerry Myers, secretary. Mrs. Pfahl was the sponsor.

N.F.L.

The National Forensic League is an honorary speech society consisting of those students who have a special interest in some type of speech work. A person desiring to enter the chapter must obtain a certain number of points through participation in speech tournaments. Members participate in such activities as Student Congress, debate, school programs, and in individual events including declamations, original oratory, and extemporaneous speaking.

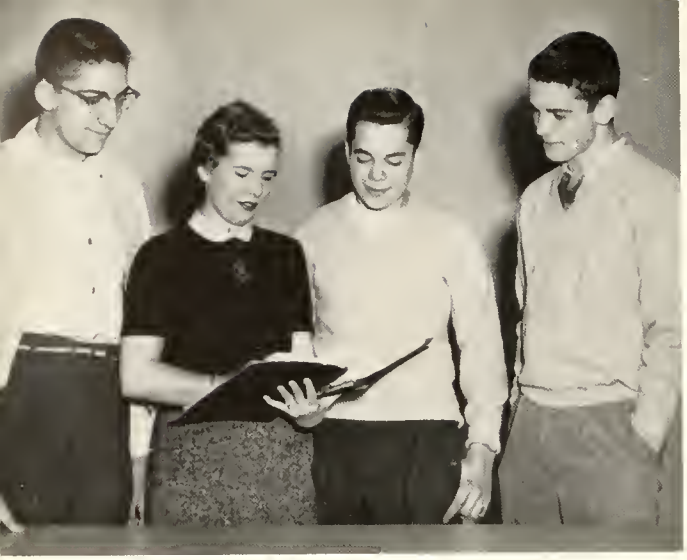

This year's officers were Bob Kinney, president; Jerry Glazman, vice-president; Diane Greenberger, secretary; and Alice Moyer, treasurer. Miss Whittington was the sponsor.

Politiclub

Politiclub is the Buchtel organization which promotes the understanding of political and social issues.

Various civic and public figures spoke before the group this year. Councilman Nathan Koplin, Attorney Bernard Rosen, and Congressman William H. Ayres were among the guest speakers. They spoke on many interesting subjects such as civic problems and juvenile delinquency.

The club conducted a mock election in November. This was on a school-wide basis with all of Buchtel's students participating. Members of the club also enjoyed a field trip to the Akron Courthouse as one of their activities.

The officers were Al Friedman, president; Mike Sher, vice-president; Mel Mermelstein, treasurer; and Lynette Patterson, secretary. The advisor was Mr. Friedman.

Camera Club

When first organized in September, the Buchtel High School Camera Club began many various projects. One of the first activities was establishment and use of a darkroom. The members have conducted much research on the use of new black and white and color films and developers.

In January the camera club featured as a guest speaker Mr. Robert Carson, proprietor of Carson's Camera Exchange. Other projects this year were a trip through Esselburn's Studio, representation of Buchtel in a nation-wide high school photographic contest, and sponsorship of a contest among students of the school.

Through the efforts of this year's Camera Club, Buchtel has become one of the first high schools in the nation to have a color laboratory.

Officers of the club were Jim Feldman, president; Tom Johnson, vice-president; and Jin Copp, secretary. The sponsor was Mr. Baker.

ART CLUB

The Art Club under the advisorship of Miss Frances Robinson, art teacher, elected Carol Schoolcraft, president; Ann White, vice-president; Sally Brownfield, secretary; and Sally Barbour, treasurer. The club had a full year of activities. The May Show at the Art Institute headed the list, and other events included making Christmas cards, silk screen posters, designs, ceramics, and jewelry.

POLICE BOYS

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Tucker, the Police Boys, Ivan Lanterman, James Weidie, and Richard Madrmer, direct the parking in Buchtel's two large parking lots. They keep traffic flowing smoothly and their efficient direction is a great aid to safe driving.

TREASURY

Every day throughout the year, the financial transactions of Buchtel are recorded by the treasury staff under the direction of Mr. Horton. School accounts, the business of all clubs and activities, and cafeteria, furnish this important group with a vital job. Members of the staff are advanced bookkeeping students.

THE LIBRARY STAFF

It is easy to understand why so many students are willing to assist in the library. Our spacious library is a large, well lighted room with an excellent variety of materials available. Miss Sexauer, the librarian, is especially proud of an extensive magazine section.

Working in the library is a service which includes cataloging, filing, and putting away books. The many students who comprise the library staff find their work an invaluable experience in learning the workings and functions of a library.

OFFICE STAFF

The student office help has a big job in helping to keep Buchtel running smoothly. They check attendance each day, do typing and filing, and run errands to every part of the building. The office girls are not only a great help to the executive staff, but also enjoy their interesting and important work.

THE GRIFF'S COACHING STAFF

For the first time in Buchtel's history, the Fighting Griffs reached the top step of City Series Football. It was an outstanding season as the Griffs finished with a fine record of seven wins, two ties, and a single loss. Climaxing the drive to the title, the Fighting Griffs knocked off Central and South with consecutive shutouts to gain a place in the Thanksgiving Championship Play-off.

In the final game, the high scoring East Orientals were held to only one touchdown by the Griff's outstanding defensive squad, which reached their season's peak in a brilliant goal line stand. The thrilling contest was decided in the final seconds as the Griffs scored on a spectacular touchdown pass to gain a tie for the coveted title.

In the words of Coach Cook, "This year's team is the best in Buchtel history."

Continuing the record-breaking year in Buchtel athletics, the 1955-56 basketball squad broke all existing offensive records to become the highest scoring quintet in Griffin history. While compiling a very respectable 10-5 season record, the squad surpassed the old single game point mark of 77 tallies no less than seven times, reaching their high in the Ravenna contest in which they established the mark of 85 points. In all, the high scoring aggregation totaled 1038 points in 15 games for a new all-time season average of 69.2 points per game. The team was led by All-City Howdy Wright, who set a new Buchtel record when he dumped in 36 points against Wadsworth, and shattered the all-time city average mark with an outstanding 25.8 average. Other stalwarts of the team who won their coveted letters were Jack Gosling, second team all-city, Ron Miller, third team all-city, Dennis Weiner, Jasper Hardin, John Poulos and Dick Fischer.

An Important Message To The Seniors Of Buchtel High!

"The story of thrift and saving a portion of each pay check is as fundamental to your success, security, and future happiness in today's atomic age as it was back when grandfather and grandmother graduated from high school. We urge you to open a savings account . . . however small the amount be . . . and then save regularly."
